

On the Green
 Dancer/choreographer Bill T. Jones is currently touring the world, performing a piece that pays homage to a place close to his heart—his garden in upstate New York.

Bill T. Jones is the distinguished cofounder of the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company. He writes about the intimate relationship between his garden and his art on page 106.

talk

August 2000

TALKING CULTURE

The Ground Beneath His Feet

As he tours the world performing a solo work that pays homage to his garden, the dancer/choreographer stays mindful of his roots—especially the ones he's planted in Valley Cottage, New York.

By Bill T. Jones Photos by Martyn Thompson

"The garden is for contemplation. It is for standing in and forgetting. It is for remembering."

