DANCING FAR INTO THE SUMMER NIGHT
WEEK THREE OF THE 2011 LA MAMA MOVES! FESTIVAL PRESENTS
ISRAEL/NEW YORK AND INTRICATE INTIMACIES
JUNE 8-12

La MaMa Moves! continues into its third week, June 8–12, with a six-day Israel/New York Festival featuring nine different dance troupes headed either by Israeli-based choreographers or New York-based Israeli expats. The week of performances features works by the Israeli choreographers Arkadi Zaides, Idan Cohen, Maya Brinner, Tomer Sharabi & Maya Stern and Yossi Berg & Oded Graf, all of whom, except for Yossi Berg & Oded Graf, are making their American debuts. Each is presenting a premiere. The New York-based, Israeli expat groups, LeeSaar The Company and Deganit Shemy, as well as the YelleB Dance Ensemble, which divides its time between Israel and New York, will also be presenting premieres. A series of short animated video dance films, created at Dimension Three, a contemporary Tel Aviv-based art lab, will be woven between the live performances. The Israel/New York Festival takes place in La MaMa's Ellen Stewart Theatre.

Also scheduled for June 9–12 is Intricate Intimacies, which takes place in La MaMa's First Floor Theatre. A series of performances, comprised of solos, duets, and trios, includes works choreographed by Judith Sanchez Ruiz, Mariah Maloney, Brandin Steffensen, Arturo Vidich, James Buster Grant and Caridad Martinez. All works are premieres.
